Because the 2008 Marketing Workshop and Career Fair is coming up!

The workshop will feature a choice of several interactive breakout sessions on a variety of business related topics presented by high-profile companies, and will offer attendees a hands-on learning experience and networking opportunities.

The Career Fair will kick off with keynote speaker Josh Linkner, the founder and Chief Executive Officer of ePrize.

The fair will feature companies from all over the country recruiting for internships and full-time positions in marketing and business related fields.

This event is open to students of all years and majors, and is brought to you by The Marketing Mix and MSU Marketing Association.

You do not need to be a member of either organization to attend!

When: November 20th

Workshop: 3:00pm - 5:00pm

Career Fair: 5:30pm - 9:00pm

Where: The MSU Union
